"Another Edo"

blooms on the northern grand ground

~Frontier Spirit of Noboribetsu Date Jidaimura~

In 1869 when the name of "Hokkaido" was given to this ground--Descendants of Kojuro Katakura, known as the right-hand man of Japanese famous warrior Masamune Date, stood as a candidate for the migration and exploitation to the Noboribetsu area.

They exchanged their swords to hoes and overcame many difficulties in order to recover their pride lost in the disturbance of the Meiji Restoration, and to revive their beautiful vigorous hometown Sendai praised as "Northern Edo" into the northernmost wilderness.

These dreams of the pioneers give birth to "Another Edo" Noboribetsu Date Jidaimura in the present world.

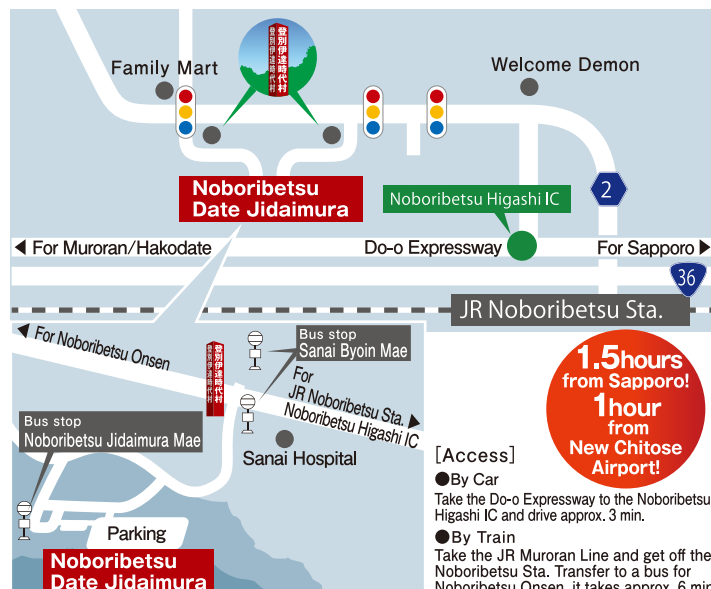

Merchant houses standing side by side, stately samurai residence, amazing ninja house full of tricks... Tasteful townscape blended into grand nature of Hokkaido, where samurais, ninjas, oirans, and townspeople are alive.

And a big entertainment space colored by powerful action and wonderful performance has expanded.

A step into the town makes you be a time traveler. Please leave present every day for a while, and thoroughly enjoy your trip to Edo period.
